Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and
All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not.

Throughout this Respect Life Month, we continue to reflect on the truth that every human being is made in the image and likeness of God. Even further, the prophet Isaiah tells us that each one of us bears a special name known only by God. We, therefore, profess and believe that God creates unique persons with a personality, soul, and character shared by no one else. At no point in our lives do we lose our unique personhood or soul.

The singular importance of every life is at the core of the terror and war raging in Israel and the Palestinian territory of the Gaza Strip. This conflict began with acts of vicious and barbaric attacks on innocent human life. Responding with worthy punishment is justly called for. Protection of the innocent, however, is also of the highest concern. Allowing for safe passage from danger, provisioning for water and food, and the providing of medical care are the required and just actions owed to the individual dignity and life of innocent individuals.

In the classic novel, To Kill a Mockingbird, the protagonist, Atticus Finch, declares, “You never really understand a person until you consider things from his point of view...until you climb into his skin and walk around in it.” Life is complex. It is not always easy to consider another point of view, especially when an alternative point of view is not just, is unreasonable, and disrespects the unique dignity of another person. Our everyday life is much simpler and not as complex as global conflicts. Yet we allow anxiety caused by a great evil, such as this, to impact the way we speak of and treat others.

We owe it to those who are enduring true evil to first and foremost be in solidarity with them in prayer and in action. Secondly, when human dignity is violated and under attack, we can't let the power of evil overcome us in the ordinary. With all our hope, we pray for a peaceful end to the horrors taking place in the Holy Land. And we pray that the virtues of patience and compassion increase within us, so that evil may have no power over us.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION – This week we welcome Auxiliary Bishop Robert Coyle and retired Auxiliary Bishop John Dunne to our parish for the conferral of the Sacrament of Confirmation on our young parishioners. Most of the candidates are high school freshmen who have completed catechetical preparation at our school or in our Faith Formation program. Over the last two months, they participated in a communal celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, an evening of prayer and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and a Sponsor and Candidate evening of reflection. They now count on your prayers as they complete their Christian Initiation and begin their discipleship of the Lord as members of His church.

ANNUAL REPORT PREPARATION – Parishioners on our email address list received a message this week inviting you to answer a few questions that will assist me in presenting an annual report to the parish. You can find the link to those questions at tinyurl.com/SROL-Report.

You may also send your answers to the following questions to the rectory. Responses are to be anonymous.

WHY SAINT ROSE? Why do you choose to be a parishioner at St. Rose of Lima? What about our parish community attracts you to our parish?

WHAT IS YOUR DREAM FOR ST. ROSE? What are your future hopes for our parish? What are some specific ideas that you have that will help us to encounter Jesus Christ through this parish?

A BIG Thank You!!!!

SROL Food Pantry & Outreach is most grateful to the Knights of Columbus Memorare Council #3476, and in particular to Knight John Silvestro, for coordinating the many deliveries of food and supplies. The Knights pick up the donations from the TruNorth Church in Bohemia and deliver them to many parishes in our area. TruNorth Church's mission is to serve those in need, and they serve as a distribution center for food, household items and some clothing. We are blessed to receive the generosity of our Knights and TruNorth Church.

- Candles, picture frames, photo albums
- Children's toys and baby items (new only!)
- Kitchen items

Items can be dropped off in front of the auditorium doors from 8:15 am -2:30 pm Monday-Friday only. We will be accepting donations from Monday, October 2nd through Monday, November 6th.

The proceeds of the Christmas Fair help offset the school budget. The success of the fair is dependent on the generosity of our school and parish families.

If you have any questions, please contact Maura Bruton at Mbruton.cf@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

The Saint Rose of Lima Christmas Fair Committee.
