Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

If you are the body and members of Christ, then it is your sacrament that is placed on the table of the Lord; it is your sacrament that you receive. To that which you are, you respond 'Amen' ('yes, it is true!') and by responding to it, you assent to it. For you hear the words, 'the Body of Christ' and respond 'Amen.' Be then a member of the Body of Christ that your Amen may be true. -St. Augustine

Last Saturday, members of our parish attended the New York State Eucharistic Congress at the Our Lady of Martyrs Shrine. We had the blessed opportunity of celebrating Holy Mass and participating in an hour-long Eucharistic Procession on the grounds of the shrine. This event, along with many others throughout the country, is a part of our national Eucharistic Revival. The aim of the revival is to deepen our Eucharistic faith and our recognition of the real presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. While at the Eucharistic Congress, I was particularly moved by a simple but profound sign of Eucharistic reverence. While gathered in a conversation outside the shrine church, I heard a soft bell ringing and noticed that conversations around me stopped, and people began to genuflect. The Blessed Sacrament was being transferred from a chapel to the main church. The monstrance bearing the sacred host was preceded by candle bearers, a cross, and the bell ringer, making us aware of the presence of our Lord in the Blessed Eucharist. I share this with you because it made me mindful of what we often allow to go unnoticed, the presence of the Lord in our midst, particularly at Holy Mass.

With the above in mind, I want to offer you the following guidance regarding Eucharistic reverence and the reception of Holy Communion.

Preparation - The Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) prepares our soul to receive Jesus in Holy Communion worthily, by removing from our souls whatever sins stand between us and God. Regularly receiving God's gift of pardon and peace in Confession is a beautiful and necessary part of our life in Christ, through which we receive strength, mercy, and grace.

Receiving Holy Communion - As the person in front of you receives Holy Communion, please make a sign of reverence to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. In the United States, this sign of reverence is customarily a bow.

Then approach the Priest, Deacon, or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, who will lift the Sacred Host above the ciborium saying "The Body of Christ." The communicant then says "Amen."

If Holy Communion is received on the tongue, the communicant extends his or her tongue so the minister may place the host on the tongue.

If Holy Communion is received in the hand, the communicant cups their right hand and places the left hand on top of it. After the minister places the Holy Eucharist into the cupped left hand, the communicant takes the host with the right hand and receives the Blessed Sacrament in their mouth immediately and reverently.

Please remember to avoid the following:

- Receiving Holy Communion by extending only one hand.
- Taking or grabbing the Sacred Host from the Priest, Deacon, or EMHC.
- Transferring or flipping the Sacred Host from one hand to the other.
- Walking away before placing the host in one's mouth.

Please note:

- Children under the age of reason cannot receive Holy Communion until they have received catechesis in a Catholic school or a parish Faith Formation program.
- If your hands are impeded by carrying a child in your arms, if you are using a cane or walker, if you have a tissue or handkerchief in your hand, a cast on your hand, or are wearing gloves, etc., it is better to receive Holy Communion directly on the tongue.

After receiving Holy Communion - When returning to the pew, we should do our best to avoid distractions, and spend our time in prayerful thanksgiving to Jesus, whom we have just received.

Extraordinary Ministers are reminded to carry the ciborium with reverence, using two hands and walking at a measured pace.

Thank you for your prayerful witness to Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. May our efforts assist us and others in the revival of our Eucharistic faith.

Dear Spiritual God-Parent,

I was born in the quiet hours last night when you were asleep. I am the little baby boy or girl who was sheltered by your prayers these nine months. As you receive Jesus in Holy Communion this Sunday, may you feel the joy of my birth and know that your love and prayers have given me a first birthday. I have asked God to bring special blessings to you who have spiritually sponsored me. He loves you so very much.

ALL SAINTSALL SOULS

We Are Called to Holiness of Life

For centuries prior to Vatican Council II (1962–65), the common understanding of saints identified those men and women whom the Church had singled out as exemplary Christians and whose names had been listed in the official list of saints. They had been “canonized” and were privileged with the official title of Saint.

But the Bishops gathered at Vatican II recognized that through our baptism, each of us was called to be holy (1 Cor 1:2) so we are all meant to be holy women and men—saints. “All the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity. By this holiness a more human way of life is promoted even in this earthly society” (Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, #40).

While at first we might think that this was a new teaching, we now realize that it was an attempt to re-emphasize the ancient mentality of the earliest Christians. From its very beginning, the Church understood the Body of Christ to encompass all baptized persons, both the living and the dead. Christ’s kingdom transcends time and space, and not even death can sever the relationship that the faithful have in Christ. All are united in a mystical communion with Christ (the “communion of saints” that we affirm whenever we proclaim the Creed at Mass) by virtue of baptism (1 Cor 6:11). St. Paul often addresses those to whom he writes as “holy ones” (saints) to designate all baptized Christians (see Rom 1:7, 15:25; 2 Cor 1:1; Eph 1:1; Phil 1:1).

And in fact the call to be holy in God’s covenant community goes back even further to the Old Testament to God’s instruction to Moses on Mt. Sinai to “Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: Be holy, for I, the LORD your God, am holy” (Lev 19:2). Thus being in a relationship with God obliges us at its most basic level to be holy, to be saints.

All Saints' Day November 1

This feast, honoring all the saints of the Church, known and unknown, provides an opportunity to reflect on our personal call to holiness and to celebrate the exemplary faithfulness of holy men and women of every place and time, whose lives and deeds continue to inspire us. It was given this date to counter a pagan feast held to appease the dangerous evil spirits associated with the coming of winter and darkness whose customs still linger today in our celebration of Halloween (meaning All Hallows' [= Holy Ones, Saints] Eve).

All Souls Day November 2

This feast remembers the many nameless and forgotten persons like our deceased family and friends who led us to Christ and into the communion of his mystical Body. It purposefully follows All Saints' Day to shift our focus from the recognized saints to ordinary people, especially those who might need our prayers. From the earliest times, Christians prayed for the dead and many monasteries adopted the tradition of remembering all the faithful departed. Eventually this custom spread throughout Europe and was included into the Church's liturgical calendar.

HONORING SAINTS IN THE EARLY CHURCH

Honoring saints began in the early Church by remembering the martyrs who by their courageous witness had imitated Jesus' faithfulness to God's ways even to death. Local churches kept a record of their own martyrs and each year set aside certain days to remember and celebrate their "birthdays," the dates of death when they were "born" into eternal life.

Their practice is illustrated today in the First Eucharistic Prayer of our Mass, which was the standard prayer adopted in the eighth century liturgical renewal of the Holy Roman Emperor Charlemagne. After Mary and the apostles, the prayer recalls the men and women martyrs of the first three centuries, "Linus, Cletus, Clement, Sixtus, Cornelius, Lawrence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmos and Damian, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter, Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia and all the saints." By the fourth century many parts of the Church had set aside special days to remember not only their distinguished martyrs but also "confessors" (those who had witnessed and been punished for their faith but did not die), virgins and those whose example was especially helpful for becoming better Christians.

The many local lists of these exemplary saints grew and soon included persons from all walks of life—popes and bishops, clergy, religious and laity, men, women, and children (e.g., the holy Innocents Dec 28), single and married. Finally in 1583 they were collected into a single book called the Roman Martyrology, the official list of saints venerated by the Church arranged according to the calendar. Additions to the list are made when new saints are officially beatified and canonized and the days for their memorial are determined.

PRAYING TO THE SAINTS

From the earliest times, Christians believed that members of the Christian community, though separated by death but now alive in Christ, were still able to help one another. "Being more closely united to Christ, those who dwell in heaven fix the whole Church more firmly in holiness. They do not cease to intercede with the Father for us, as they proffer the merits which they acquired on earth through the one mediator between God and humanity, Christ Jesus. So by their fraternal concern is our weakness greatly helped" (Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, #49). Thus the importance of the saints as intercessors for us with God became more popular.

The identification of saints as mediators with God introduces their role as patron saints, that is, one to whom we can go when we have specific needs that require help. Saints are designated as patrons or special advocates for nations, churches, places, crafts, activities, jobs, classes, clans, families, illnesses, causes, etc. Most patrons have been so designated as the result of popular devotion and long-standing custom. The Church has officially designated rather few patrons, and most patron designations, especially more recent ones, are unofficial.

How Do I Request Prayer for myself or someone I love at St. Rose of Lima?

Our parish receives numerous prayer requests from parishioners, and non-parishioners, for a variety of needs, but mostly for those who are experiencing an illness. Following is a list of opportunities for prayer in our parish:

Prayers for the sick from the pulpit and in our weekly bulletin: Please call the rectory (516.798.4992) during regular business hours to add your name to this list. Names are mentioned from the pulpit during all Masses for one week, and are then transferred to the bulletin for a period of three weeks. (Please note: 1) For privacy reasons, if you are requesting prayers for someone other than yourself, you must have the permission of the person being prayed for to add their name to this list. 2) If a name is not announced, please know that they are not forgotten, as we pray for all those who are ill and convalescing at every Mass).

Parish Prayer Intention Book: A book is located in the church narthex by the statue of St. Rose of Lima, where you can write your prayer request. These prayers can be for any reason, including for those serving in the military, and will be included collectively in our Sunday and weekday Mass intentions.

Charismatic Prayer Group prayer box: There is a box located on the shelf in the church vestibule - the entrance from the parking lot by the sacristy door - where you can place your request for prayers. Each week, the members of the Charismatic Prayer Group check the box and the prayer requests are divided amongst the members. They will pray for your needs during their meeting on Wednesday afternoons, and continue at their homes. Paper and pencil are available by the prayer box for your convenience.

Prayer Line Ministry: Call or email (mariap@srolchurch.org) the rectory to request prayers. Members of this ministry receive a weekly list of names of people in need of prayer and pray for them in the privacy of their own home. Only first names are used to protect the privacy of the individual being prayed for.

For the Military: Call the rectory to request prayers for those serving in the military and we will print the person's name, and the branch they serve in, in the bulletin on a monthly basis.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.
