Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

In this you rejoice, although now for a little while, you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

This year, the dates of Lent and Easter matched closely to the same dates three years ago. So, too, do the readings we have read during these weeks. I have, therefore, been reflecting on those weeks of quarantine at the beginning of the Covid-19 pandemic. When I see pictures from that time or read things that I or others wrote, I am taken by how much we had hope. On Easter Sunday 2020, we rejoiced in the resurrection, yet at the same time, we were immersed in the pain and suffering of the pandemic. We learned that joy and suffering were not mutually exclusive. In fact, we came to understand that suffering gives a deeper appreciation of true joy.

At a prayer service for the sick and suffering, Pope Saint John Paul II reflected on the words of Saint Peter in today's second reading in this way.

"As we are told in the First Letter of Peter, we may be called to experience suffering in our lives, but only through a faith which is tested shall we obtain the salvation of our souls. The only way to share in Christ's glorious victory over sin and death is by being united with him in his Passion. It is Jesus' Death and Resurrection which show us the meaning of human suffering. Believers who suffer in union with Christ and surrender themselves to him help make his salvation known to others.

Jesus' Passion and Crucifixion is not a stumbling block for you, but a source of joy and hope. Accepting your suffering in this way, you allow others to see the true dignity of the human person. You reveal a God who loves us so much that he became one of us in order to share our pain and sorrows. You make known the truth that God will transform death itself into a beautiful future where he will wipe away every tear from our eyes."

With our church filled to capacity and beyond this Easter, I wondered if we were seeing a resurgence in the practice of faith. I hope that we are. I believe that there continues to be a longing for resurrection. When we experience dark and hopeless moments or times of abandonment, my prayer is that we will remember this transition of these three years and find joy in rising from darkness to light.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY - In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her diary.

St. Faustina's Diary records Jesus' request that a Feast of Mercy be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision, with his right hand raised in a blessing and his left touching his garment above his heart. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbolizing the blood and water that was poured out for our salvation and our sanctification. The Lord requested that "Jesus, I trust in You" be inscribed under his image.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy was also given to St. Faustina and, in addition, Jesus gave St. Faustina nine intentions for which to pray the Chaplet beginning on Good Friday and ending on Easter Saturday. I invite you to join us this Sunday at 3:00 for our annual Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour as we mark the end of the days of novena.

While the acute stages of the pandemic have ended, many are still troubled by its effects and their own vulnerability. In addition, other challenges to health and well-being remain burdensome in many lives. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, I ask you to continue to pray for the sick and to let us know of those who are afflicted, so we may remember them in prayer. I also ask you to sincerely pray for those who have shouldered much of the sorrow and anxieties of these days, our health care and emergency personnel.

EASTER THANK YOU'S – In last week's column, I briefly expressed my thanks to those who shared in the ministries of Holy Week. I want to thank our parish staff and the various volunteers who worked so hard behind the scenes to allow us to celebrate Holy Week so well. I also wish to acknowledge the faithful participation of all of you. The beauty of these liturgies was most evident in the faith professed by those whose prayer and worship unified us. I also thank you for your financial generosity which enables us to continue the good work of our parish.

DIVINE MERCY Sunday

Sunday, April 16, 2023
at 3:00 pm

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” Our Lord made a great promise to all those souls who would go to Confession and then receive Him in Holy Communion on the Feast of His Mercy, now called Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Image of The Divine Mercy, which Our Lord requested to be solemnly blessed and venerated on this day, will be on display in our church. Pope John Paul II said that the image portrays the Risen Jesus Christ bringing Mercy to the whole world. Our Lord said “I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish.” Please take time to visit with this Image of The Divine Mercy.

Join us in the Church
for a Holy Hour
Sunday, April 16
Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet
3:00 - 4:00 pm Livestreamed

Jesus said to St. Faustina,

"I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: Jesus, I trust in You. The two rays denote Blood and Water. The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the cross. ...Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him."

How Do I Request Prayer for myself or someone I love at St. Rose of Lima?

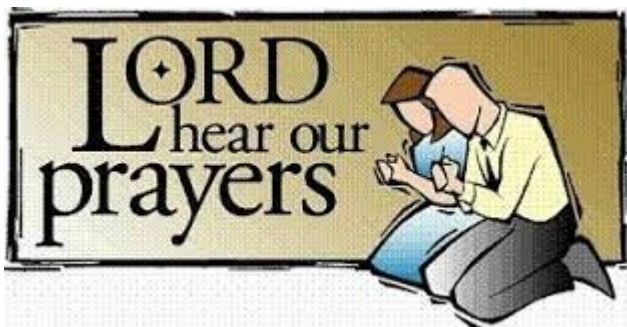

Our parish receives numerous prayer requests from parishioners and non-parishioners for a variety of needs, but mostly for those who are experiencing an illness. Following is a list of opportunities for prayer in our parish:

Prayers for the sick from the pulpit and in our weekly bulletin: Please call the rectory (516.798.4992) during regular business hours to add your name to this list. Names are mentioned from the pulpit during all Masses for one week, and are then transferred to the bulletin for a period of three weeks. (Please note: 1. For privacy reasons, if you are requesting prayers for someone other than yourself, you must have the permission of the person being prayed for to add their name to this list. 2. If a name is not announced, please know that they are not forgotten, as we pray for all those who are ill and convalescing at every Mass.)

Parish Prayer Intention Book: A book is located in the church narthex by the statue of St. Rose of Lima, where you can write your prayer request. These prayers can be for any reason, including for those serving in the military, and will be included collectively in our Sunday and weekday Mass intentions.

Prayer Line Ministry: Call or email (mariap@srolchurch.org) the rectory to request prayers. Members of this ministry receive a weekly list of names of people in need of prayer and pray for them in the privacy of their own home. Only first names are used to protect the privacy of the individual being prayed for.

For the Military: Call the rectory to request prayers for those serving in the military, and we will print the person's name and the branch they serve in, in the bulletin on a monthly basis.

St. Rose School News

Building strong minds and faith-filled hearts!

The 6th graders recently completed the reading of the Newbery Award winning book, Maniac Magee by Jerry Spinelli. To celebrate the completion of the book, the students were given the task of rewriting the 80's song, "Maniac" by Michael Sembello, to include specific details from the book. The musical talent and creativity of the students was very entertaining!

"It is better to have an imperfect but humble faith that always returns to Jesus, than a strong but presumptuous faith that makes us proud and arrogant. Jesus does not give up, he does not get tired of us, he is not afraid of our crises, our weaknesses. He always comes back; When like Thomas, we need to encounter him and to touch him up close, he comes back, Jesus always comes back, he always knocks on the door, and he does not come back with powerful signs that would make us feel small and inadequate, even ashamed, but with his wounds; he comes back showing us his wounds, signs of his love..." Pope Francis
