Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.*

Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

...from Fr. Gerard

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.

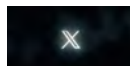

The Battle of Gettysburg was the bloodiest of Civil War battles. In just three days, between 46,000 and 51,000 lives were lost. I recently read a reflection from someone who had visited the battleground and, reflecting on the experience, he wrote, "It seemed as though the very ground still cried out from its drenching in blood. Just think of the parents, widows, and orphaned children that wept over these casualties. Nature itself still groans in agony." When I see the images of the ongoing conflicts in Gaza and Ukraine, I can't but help to think that these bloody battles of our day will forever impact the people and places that lament and cry out over such suffering.

Today's first reading is taken from the Book of Job. This text belongs to the Jewish wisdom traditions and is widely regarded as one of the Old Testament's finest reflections on the problem of suffering, especially the suffering of the innocent. In today's first reading, we hear Job, the pious and righteous man who has been suddenly and inexplicitly stricken with personal tragedy, in the depths of despair: "Is not man's life on earth a drudgery? ... Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again." For much of the storyline, Job and his friends struggle to find meaning in his suffering. They are unable to find any good news in the recent events of Job's life. Like so many who suffer today, they long to hear where God may be present in their suffering.

When such suffering occurs on a grand scale or in the micro-experience of an individual, it seems that the grief is responded to with indifference and even intolerance. Those who suffer feel compelled to stifle their sorrow. Yet, just as the Gettysburg visitor reflected, nature itself cannot seem to contain grief. The Book of Psalms, as well as other scriptural passages, features what are referred to as lamentations, deep expressions of sorrow or grief. Suppressing our pain is not healthy or natural. A time to come together and weep out our pain and grief could be so healing. The lament calls down the compassionate love of God. As we hear in today's Psalm, "he heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." Groups that support the bereaved and suffering are a safe place to lament and cry out within the context of others who share in similar sorrow. The whole church, however, is called to listen and respond to sorrow. As we see time and again in the Gospels, light always overcomes darkness. The Gospels show that the howling dirge is always the precursor to shouted and sung alleluias!

SCOUT SUNDAY - The twelfth point of the Scout Law is A Scout is Reverent. In addition, in their oaths, Scouts profess a duty to God. Today we show that the church's mission into the environment is an important aspect of ministering to young people. So, we welcome them to mass today and encourage them to continue to allow scouting to assist them in their moral, mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual growth. We express our thanks as well to leaders and all parents who support the mission and ministry of scouting in the church.

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY – Next weekend, at every mass, we will offer the church's blessing to all married couples. We pray that the Lord will continue to strengthen marriages and families as they continue to witness sacrificial love to the world.

Celebration of Ash Wednesday

ASH WEDNESDAY SCHEDULE WITH DISTRIBUTION OF ASHES February 14, 2024

Masses at: 7:30 am, 9:00 am & 7:30 pm

The 9:00 am Mass will be in church and livestreamed*.

The Meaning of Ashes

Lent begins with ashes on our heads, reminding us of some fundamental truths about ourselves. The dust of the ashes recalls to us that death is inevitable for every human person. The ashes speak of repentance and our need to convert our hearts. We seek to rise from the ashes of our sinfulness to full life with Christ. But before we can embrace the new life of the resurrection, we must embrace the cross. Before coming to the font of life-giving water, we must travel through the desert.

The dying of self to which we are called is the only way to fullness of life, and thus it is a profoundly positive step in our spiritual life - a step that begins with receiving ashes on our heads.

Lenten Requirements

All Catholics who have reached their 14th year are bound to abstain entirely from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

RESPECT LIFE COMMITTEE SPIRITUAL GOD-PARENT ADOPTION PROGRAM

Join us as we:

- • Pray for the protection of an unborn child.
- • Share in prayer for parents who are expecting a child.
- • Learn about the development of the preborn child.
- • Provide mothers in need with a "Baby Shower" of donated baby gifts.

This month we kick-off our Spiritual God-Parent Adoption Program. We ask that each family 'spiritually adopt' a baby in danger of being aborted, and pray that his/her mother choose life instead. Throughout the next nine months, we will update the progress of your 'adopted baby's' growth in our parish bulletin, until his/her birth in October. Finally, during the month of October, we will celebrate your 'spiritually adopted baby's' birth with a 'baby shower'; items will be donated to the Life Center of Long Island to support mother's and families in need.

Please be sure to pick up a beautiful prayer card this weekend to help you pray for your 'spiritually adopted baby', or have your child color the below picture of the Holy Family, choose a name for your spiritually adopted baby, and post it on your fridge, or wherever you will see it, and pray the prayer daily.
