2 BAYVIEW AVENUE MASSAPEQUA NY 11758 • 516-798-4992 • www.srolchurch.org

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

The reason the world does not know us, is that it did not know him.

What do we mean when we say that we "know" someone? On one level we may say we know of someone, when we are referring to a celebrity or a well-known leader. We identify that person through whatever knowledge we have gained in the public forum or through the opinions of others. We also may speak of knowing an acquaintance, whom we encounter on a regular basis. In this case, we can describe them by their physical appearance, observable traits or through knowledge we have gained through small talk.

Knowing someone whom we regard as a friend would mean we have some knowledge of their character, beliefs, passions, fears, and personal history. The deepest level of knowing a person and the most intimate form of knowing is experienced with those we love, whether it be family, friend or romantically. On this level we know the deeper identity of the person, possessing knowledge and history of the person because they have entrusted their truest self to us. Understanding these levels of knowledge are not only important to the human dynamic of our lives, but the spiritual as well. What therefore do we mean when we speak of knowing God or being known by God?

We certainly strive for the deepest level of knowing God. Typically, we come to know God by moving through the same levels of knowledge described above. What starts out as knowing, of God, moves closer to the intimate, the more we encounter God through our prayer, our study, our discussion with others and very importantly through the sacramental encounters of our lives. Ultimately what we seek comes not through intellectual exercises but through an experience of selfless love. The Greek word for this love is Agape.

Agape, or selfless unconditional love, is not a sentimental outpouring, nor is it condition based. It is the purest form of love; free from desires and expectations, and loves, regardless of the flaws and shortcomings of others. Agape love is an encounter with the divine, who seeks to love us through mercy, reconciliation, and the gift of everlasting life. In other words, this love can only be experienced by those who "know" God.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY - Today we look to the inspiration that comes from the Good Shepherd in today's Gospel who knows and is known by the flock. This Sunday we express our love of the priesthood and pray for vocations. But we are also called to action. We cannot be passive and simply wait for our prayers to be answered as we wait to see who will come into our rectory, sacristy, or church.

A recent statement about priesthood came from Pope Francis in his Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation on the Amazon, "Querida Amazonia." While some thought he might say something radically new about priesthood, Pope Francis wrote about the exclusive character received in Holy Orders, which he said,

"qualifies the priest alone to preside at the Eucharist. That is his particular, principal, and non-delegable function. There are those who think that what distinguishes the priest is power...but rather (the priest) is "totally ordered to the holiness of Christ's members"...The priest is a sign of that head and wellspring of grace above all when he celebrates the Eucharist, the source and summit of the entire Christian life. That is his great power, a power that can only be received in the sacrament of Holy Orders. For this reason, only the priest can say: "This is my body". There are other words too, that he alone can speak: "I absolve you from your sins". Because sacramental forgiveness is at the service of a worthy celebration of the Eucharist. These two sacraments lie at the heart of the priest's exclusive identity."

A recent survey of newly ordained priests showed overwhelming data that the personal invitation from their parish priests and encouragement/support from the local faith community helped to strengthen and sustain the newly ordained on their journey to the altar. Vocations to priesthood and religious life do not fall from the sky, they are created and fostered within the parish community. As a parish community we are called to invite the men of our parish to consider a vocation to the priesthood and religious life. Actively casting the vocations net and inviting our young men to follow the Master's call to "Go and Make Disciples." is a task for all of us.

CHURCH DOOR CAMPAIGN – Donations for the replacement of our church doors have begun to come in. Thanks to all who are helping us to undergo this necessary capital project. The flyer in today's bulletin has been updated to include a return slip for you to use when making your donation. Please see the flyer for complete information on the project. Thank you for your support.

Church Door Renovation Project

We are happy to announce the planned renovation of new doors for our church

As our parish approaches our 75th anniversary, plans to replace our nearly 70 year old doors are underway. Over the last few years, attempts have been made to repair doors that have broken mechanisms and rotting interiors. Replacement parts are hard to come by and the repair of one door alone cost over $1,000.

Newly designed doors will also allow for increased safety, energy efficiency, and accessibility. Tinted glass windows will bring light into vestibules and allow users to see into and out of the building, increasing safety through greater visibility. The newly designed doors will operate with greater ease and will not be as heavy as the current doors.

The project is scheduled to take place this summer and will cost an estimate of $90,000.

Donations and pledges

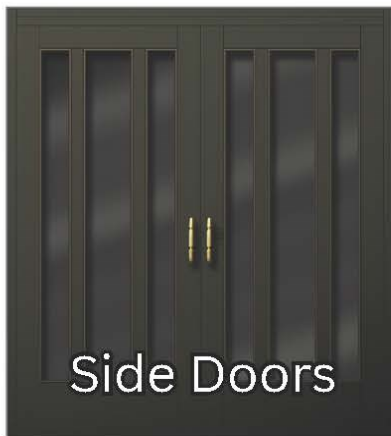

While parish reserve funds will assist in covering the cost of this project, additional donations will be needed. Thankfully, $30,000 has already been donated, giving us a good start.

All donations to this project will be given special recognition

Suggested giving levels

- $10,000 and above
- $5,000 to $9,999
- $1,000 to $4,999
- $500 to $999
- up to $499

Please use the form below and submit your donation to Sharon in the rectory. Thank you for your support.
