2 BAYVIEW AVENUE MASSAPEQUA NY 11758 • 516-798-4992 • www.srolchurch.org

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

We look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal.

I recently discovered a book titled Saintly Solutions to Life's Common Problems: From Anger, Boredom, and Temptation to Gluttony, Gossip, and Greed by Joseph M. Esper. The book includes many sins, temptations, problems, challenges, and life situations commonly experienced by people today, along with inspiration and practical advice from the example of the saints. In a chapter dedicated to the problem of uncertainty, I found this quote from our parish patroness, St. Rose of Lima - "When God is consulted sincerely, He gives a clear answer."

In today's second reading, St. Paul is inspired to give one of those clear answers. Whatever earthly issue we are struggling with – that concern is temporary. What is right in front of us understandably becomes the focus of our attention. While we cannot ignore responsibilities and genuine concerns, our faith calls us to look beyond them. All of what we see and experience is transitory, whether it be good or bad. What we cannot see with human capabilities, we see and experience through faith, and it is in those eternal things that we find consolation and hope.

Like much of my preaching, I write these words for myself. I am mindful of the interchange between Jesus and the sisters Martha and Mary. Jesus has been invited to dine at their home and as he visits, Martha is busy about the preparation of the meal, and Mary takes the position of the student disciple, sitting at our Lord's feet. When Martha asks Jesus to tell her sister to come and assist her, Jesus famously responds, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken from her." I know that I can be preoccupied and worried about the many responsibilities and concerns of my life. I am often tempted to "get things done" and pray later. The opposite order, however, is the right one. The transitory things can wait. The eternal relationship with the Lord and my covenant relationship needs to be tended to first. I, like many of you, look to the summer days ahead as an opportunity to re-orient my priorities and my focus to that which is eternal.

Through the intercession of St. Rose, may our parish community consult God seriously and listen for the clear answer that comes from a true discernment between what is transitory and what is eternal.

CELEBRATING FR. ANTHONY – As I announced a few weeks ago, Fr. Anthony will begin a new assignment at the end of this month and will be moving to St. Mary's in Manhasset. His final Family Mass will be on Father's Day, June 16. Our children and families will have a chance to pray for Fr. Anthony and thank him. On Sunday, June 23, Fr. Anthony will celebrate his final Sunday Mass at 12:00 pm. A farewell reception will follow.

CHURCH DOOR UPDATE – The first payment has been made, allowing the planning and production process to begin. The manufacturer has set a target date of August 23, the Feast of St. Rose of Lima. We have received 88% of our stated goal of funds needed for the project. I am so grateful that there has been such a generous response. Like any project that supports the mission and needs of our parish, it's not the size of a donation that matters as much as the participation and support of many. As of this writing, 90 families or individuals have contributed to the campaign. If you have not already done so, please consider contributing to this necessary capital project.

ORDINATION OF PRIESTS – This weekend Bishop Barres will ordain two men to the priesthood. Please pray for Deacon Joseph Lettieri and Deacon Dennis Gannon as they are ordained priests of our diocese. Pray, too, for an increase in vocations to the priesthood so that the church on Long Island might be served with the sacraments.

Church Door Renovation Project

We are happy to announce the planned renovation of new doors for our church

As our parish approaches our 75th anniversary, plans to replace our nearly 70 year old doors are underway. Over the last few years, attempts have been made to repair doors that have broken mechanisms and rotting interiors. Replacement parts are hard to come by and the repair of one door alone cost over $1,000.

Newly designed doors will also allow for increased safety, energy efficiency, and accessibility. Tinted glass windows will bring light into vestibules and allow users to see into and out of the building, increasing safety through greater visibility. The newly designed doors will operate with greater ease and will not be as heavy as the current doors.

The project is scheduled to take place this summer and will cost an estimate of $90,000.

Donations and pledges

While parish reserve funds will assist in covering the cost of this project, additional donations will be needed. Thankfully, nearly $40,000 has already been raised.

All donations to this project will be given special recognition

Suggested giving levels

- $10,000 and above
- $5,000 to $9,999
- $1,000 to $4,999
- $500 to $999
- up to $499

You may use the form below to submit your donation or you can make a secure online donation at <https://tinyurl.com/SROL-doors> or use the QR code displayed above.

Dear Friends and Supporters of St. Rose,
