FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

St. Paul in today's second reading, implores us to be reconciled to God. To be reconciled, to be loved, to be wrapped in the Father's mercy—this is what Christ seeks for us. This is the mission of Jesus, plain and simple, to heal our relationship with God. It also ought to be the way in which we understand our mission as Christians. Even more so it is what we Christians contribute to the transformation of the world.

As I reflected on this Sunday's readings throughout the past week, this phrase remained with me. In a particular way it became my prayer for our fractured country. Christian forgiveness is based upon reconciliation, not retribution. The goal is to heal broken bonds. Sin and the breaking of human and divine law does not come without punishment. There are always consequences for unjust and harmful actions. Accountability and justice are necessary, but they are not the complete response to sin. The Christian mission is to respond to sin with a desire to reconcile.

Reconciliation does not mean a return to what was either. Reconciliation leads to a new way of living that manifests peace in some form. A broken marriage may not be restored but a peace that is beneficial to all members of the family may be established. One who is guilty of taking the life of another may never be set free from jail, but their disposition and destructive patterns can be amended.

The healing of social and societal sin begins with our own individual repentance, a renewal that cannot occur without the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is an agent of change for us. It is the continuation of the ministry that St. Paul speaks of. The change we seek in our lives does indeed come through the discipline of our efforts, however, true healing and joy in that healing is found through the mercy of God alone. To know that we are loved and forgiven, despite our sin is powerful and transformative.

I pray that we may all have the courage and humility to seek change through God's merciful love. Freed by His generous mercy, we will be empowered to implore on behalf of Christ for the healing of all our divisions.

OPERATION RICE BOWL – For 50 Catholic Relief Services has helped Catholic faith communities bring Lent to life through an encounter with our global family. CRS Rice Bowls are available throughout the church for families to take home as a visible reminder of our solidarity with those in need as well as a receptacle to collect our Lenten Almsgiving.

How Do I Request Prayer for myself or someone I love at St. Rose of Lima?

Our parish receives numerous prayer requests from parishioners and non-parishioners, for a variety of needs, but mostly for those who are experiencing an illness. Following is a list of opportunities for prayer in our parish:

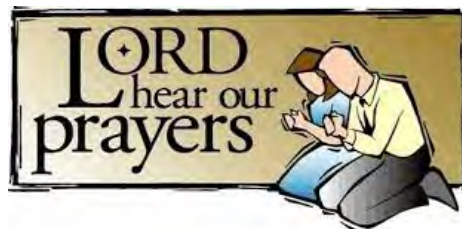

Prayers for the sick from the pulpit and in our weekly bulletin: Please call the rectory during regular business hours (516-798-4992) to add your name to this list. Names are mentioned from the pulpit during all Masses for one week, and are then transferred to the bulletin for a period of three weeks. (Please note: 1) For privacy reasons, if you are requesting prayers for someone other than yourself, you must have the permission of the person being prayed for to add their name to this list. 2) If a name is not announced, please know that they are not forgotten, as we pray for all those who are ill and convalescing at every Mass.)

Parish Prayer Intention Book: A book is located in the church narthex by the statue of St. Rose of Lima, where you can write your prayer request. These prayers can be for any reason, including for those serving in the military, and will be included collectively in our Sunday and weekday Mass intentions.

Charismatic Prayer Group prayer box: There is a box located on the shelf in the church vestibule - the entrance from the parking lot by the sacristy door - where you can place your request for prayers. Each week, the members of the Charismatic Prayer Group check the box, and the prayer requests are divided amongst the members. They will pray for your needs during their meeting on Wednesday afternoons, and continue at their homes. Paper and pencil are available by the prayer box for your convenience.

Prayer Line Ministry: Call or email (mariap@srolchurch.org) the rectory to request prayers. Members of this ministry receive a weekly list of names of people in need of prayer and pray for them in the privacy of their own home. Only first names are used to protect the privacy of the individual being prayed for.

For the Military: Call the rectory to request prayers for those serving in the military, and we will print the person's name and the branch they serve in, in the bulletin on a recurring basis.
