FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

Forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

Singer and songwriter Bob Dylan is the subject of a recent biographical film "A Complete Unknown." I have yet to see the film but intrigued to know a little more about this music icon, I started listening to some of his music which I was not familiar with. In doing so, I came across a song he released in 1980 called "Pressing On." It's a gospel-styled song with Dylan singing and playing piano. Its driving spirit accompanies lyrics like,

Well, I'm pressing on to the higher calling of my Lord. Many try to stop me, shake me up in my mind, say, "Prove to me that He is Lord, show me a sign."

Shake the dust off of your feet, don't look back. Nothing now can hold you down, nothing that you lack. Well, I am pressing on.

Commentators have stated that the song and lyrics are an expression of Bob Dylan's faith and the lyrics themselves are taken in part from the above passage from today's second reading. The words "straining forward" are a translation of the Greek word diōkō, translated into English as pressing on. The song captures the spirit of St. Paul's words, admonishing us to move forward, not allowing ourselves to be defined by the past. Ironically, Dylan often ended his concerts with this song. Seeming to say that the show is over – but we keep moving forward.

Lent is all about pressing on. Letting go of past hurts is difficult for us, but not for God. Throughout these days of Lent, we are called to be reconciled with God, with others and even our past. In fact, the greatest stumbling block to us "feeling" reconciled is ourselves. We hear the words of forgiveness from someone we have offended, or we listen to the words of absolution offered by the priest—and we still feel burdened. Asking for grace to feel forgiveness and to believe in our hearts that we are forgiven is an important aspect of spiritual life. It also helps to begin a different path or pattern of life and therefore to press on by the grace of God.

As we draw close to the end of our Lenten journey and move into the celebration of the Lord's Passion, we recognize our Lord who presses on so we might be saved. Like Simon of Cyrene, Veronica and the other woman Jesus encounters on the way of the cross, we are called to press on with him to Calvary, dying to sin and rising to life.

SOUP SUPPER - Our final Lenten Soup Supper is this Wednesday. Please plan to join us for a simple meal and a moment of solidarity with the poor.

OPERATION RICE BOWL – Your Operation Rice Bowl money can be dropped off at the rectory office or placed in the offertory collection basket and marked Operation Rice Bowl. Also, you can use the QR code on the Rice Bowl. Bills or checks only please.

Almsgiving in Lent

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms.

Lent is a perfect time for us to pray for those in need - whether it is for their material, emotional or spiritual needs. And when you practice fasting and abstinence during these 40 days, please remember those of our neighbors who reach out to us for help.

One way to do this is by making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which supports programs that help people in our community each year through Catholic Charities and our Parish Outreach programs.

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800 ext. 296.
