Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and
All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

5:15 Mass for the People

...from Fr. Gerard

He emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross.

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Today we honor the Holy Cross on which Christ died, because it is the instrument of love through which God saved us. What was once understood as an object of scorn and shame is for us now, a sign of glory.

Although countless generations of artists have turned the cross into a thing of beauty to be carried in procession or worn as jewelry, to the eyes of the first Christians, it had no beauty. It stood outside city walls, decorated only with decaying corpses, as a threat to anyone who defied Rome's authority. Today when we place a crucifix in churches, homes, classrooms or wear this image on our persons, we are challenged to see it as a constant reminder of Christ's victory over sin and death. In addition, it is an outward sign of our identity as Christians.

The Holy Cross of Christ is also held out before us as a sign of hope. The pains and sorrows of life are known to every one of us. The mystery of the cross gives us hope in that - no sorrow, suffering or pain is more powerful than our heavenly Father, who raised up his Son from death. In the face of mourning, illness, addiction, crisis and despair, the cross calls us to be renewed in faith, praying for grace to allow us to see hope amidst our darkness.

Finally, when we look upon the cross, we see a challenge to be transformed. The cross is a call to conversion. We are called to believe that the love of Christ, which led him to the cross, is a love that is given freely today to those who seek mercy and forgiveness.

Some years ago, I came across a rare Billy Joel song, titled "Cross to Bear." I was encouraged that a secular artist would even find wisdom in the cross. Unfortunately, the first lyric offers little such hope,

*Well, I know you got your troubles, But I've got problems of my own
It's all relative you see, what happiness should be. And we got to work it out alone.*

The truth is that we don't have to work it out alone. We are not meant to work it out alone. As much as we might feel abandoned in our suffering, we are not. On the cross, Our Lord quotes the beginning of Psalm 22, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken me." In quoting the opening line our Lord intends the whole Psalm which at its halfway point proclaims, "But you, LORD, do not stay far off; my strength, come quickly to help me." The psalm goes on to speak of how the one who suffers, is saved and becomes one who proclaims the goodness of God.

Many feel abandoned and lonely, but it is the mission of the church, the body of Christ, to share the burden of the cross, easing the suffering of others and bringing hope to what appears to be hopeless.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION – The distribution of the Blessed Sacrament at Holy Mass depends upon the assistance of the lay faithful. Over the course of time, those who have faithfully served in this ministry have decreased in number while at the same time our mass attendance has increased. In addition, several parishioners have asked me about returning to the availability of the Precious Blood at Holy Mass. Furthermore, some of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion feel called to bring the Eucharist to the homebound. We are, therefore, in need of new people to participate in this ministry.

Training dates for these ministries as well as training for lectors are coming up next month. Please note the following:

Tuesday, Oct. 21 - St. Elizabeth / Melville - Msgr. Kane Hall; 7 pm - 10 pm

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion
Lector Workshop

Tuesday, Nov. 18 - St. Elizabeth / Melville - Msgr. Kane Hall; 7 pm - 9 pm

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion Homebound

Tuesday, October 28 - St. Agnes Cathedral/RVC - Msgr. Kelly Parish Center; 7 pm -10 pm

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion
Lector Workshop

Wednesday, Nov. 5 - St. Agnes Cathedral/RVC - Msgr. Kelly Parish Center; 7 pm - 9 pm

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion Homebound

Please contact me directly by email frgerard@srolchurch.org or calling the rectory 516-798-4992 if you are willing to be trained to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy communion or Lector.

St. Pius X Residence for Retired Priests

The mission of St. Pius X Residence is to provide a nurturing environment that respects and cherishes the lifelong commitment of our beloved priests. The Residence strives to create a warm and supportive community where they can enjoy their retirement years with dignity, surrounded by like-minded individuals who share their dedication to faith.

As our elderly priests enter this stage of their life, they often experience ongoing challenges that require added care and attention, and because of you, the St Pius X Residence is there for them. Even in retirement, our priests continue to make a profound impact on the spiritual and personal lives of Catholics of all ages. When they are able, they celebrate Mass in area parishes, visit the sick and homebound, and bring God's Word to those in prison.

Please support our beloved priests in their retirement years.

Fr. Steve Pietrowski, Rector

"I am so proud to be able to serve all the wonderful priests residing at St Pius. This house provides a place for our priests who have a need for care and help for daily activities. It's a safe place to age gracefully. Here at St. Pius, we provide for one another. We call this place home," shared Fr. Pietrowski.

Msgr. Ron Richardson:

"When I was living on my own for a number of years, I felt a sense of isolation, especially during Covid but here I am with many of my fellow priests who I served with at times throughout the years. I've always been a walker, most of my life I've walked and jogged. I love the outdoors and I am so grateful to be here at this gorgeous campus."

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Residence will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible!

Thank You! <https://www.stpiusresidence.org/>

SROL Parish Outreach

The Co-coordinators and volunteers at Parish Outreach are so grateful for your generosity to the guests we serve each day. Whether you drop off a bag of food, put items in the bins at the exits of the Church or participate in Blessing Bags and Advent Angels ... all of this helps us to serve those in need in the Massapequa area and beyond. And like the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, just when our pantry is running low, someone appears at our door with items that we are in dire need of.

We know it is hard to remember to buy that one extra item when we are shopping. So we want to share with you that some parishioners have found a solution. They have scheduled monthly donations to Outreach right from their home computer or phone. If you have Amazon Prime, please consider this option to make donating easier for you. Address deliveries to: St Rose of Lima Parish Outreach, 2 Bayview Avenue, Massapequa NY 11758. We are thrilled to get your donations through the mail!!!

Together, we the parishioners of St. Rose of Lima Parish, help to stamp out hunger on Long Island. Together, we are the hands and feet of Christ to our neighbors. God bless you!!!
