Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and
All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

Due to publishing deadlines, this is the first column I have written that was not subject to early deadlines due to the holiday printing schedule. Having the opportunity to write in “real time” is another example of the return to routine that we all encounter in these early days of the New Year. We go about doing the things that may be less than exciting but are both necessary and familiar to our lives. The same is true for our life of faith.

As we move on from the high celebrations of the Christmas season, we return to the routine of our discipleship. We emulate Jesus Christ as St. Peter describes him in the second reading; “doing good and healing all, for God was with him.” Extraordinary things are done during the holidays by many people. Gifts are purchased, donations are made to the needy, the lonely are visited and joyfulness is lived amid life’s challenges. While these are extraordinary acts in the routine of the secular world, they are routine acts in the extraordinary world of God’s kingdom.

At his baptism, the public ministerial life of Jesus is inaugurated, and the extraordinary acts of his mission become his routine. In our baptism, we are called to live extraordinary lives in an ordinary way. As disciples of Christ, we return to our routines and continue to go about doing good things because God is with us, in the extraordinary and the ordinary.

In my Christmas homily, I suggested that we might decide to leave a little reminder of Christmas visible in our homes as we move into the bleakness of winter; a nativity scene, a candle, a decoration. A reminder of the extraordinary birth of God in human flesh can be a reminder for us not to fall into meaningless routine. In addition, committing ourselves to being faithful to Sunday Mass is not only an obligation of our baptism, but is the encounter with Jesus that we need to live out our mission as disciples. When we read the gospels, we see our Lord amid ordinary life, doing extraordinary things.

During these days of Christmas, we repeatedly referred to the Greek word “Emmanuel” which means God is with us. Today, in speaking to the crowd, St. Peter speaks of Jesus doing the extraordinary, “for God was with him.” Emmanuel, God is with us at work, school, making dinner, doing homework, folding laundry and at practice. In the ordinary days, let us do extraordinary things because God is with us.

ORDINARY TIME – As we enter a new church season, I thought it would be helpful to share some catechesis on this liturgical season.

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the Church year, fills the weeks that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. It’s the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the Resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

At first glance, the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting until Advent. Basically, that’s how it works. But we have a few quirks. For example, there is no “First Sunday in Ordinary Time;” however, there is a first week. Usually, Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around, we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. Therefore, when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off. Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost, not based on where we left off before Lent, but by counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.

RESPECT LIFE

PRAYER AND ACTION FOR THE GIFT OF LIFE

January 22 has been designated a day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children" in all U.S. Dioceses.

Prayer and action are the means by which we are called to move forward.

The Saint Rose of Lima Respect Life Committee invites you to join us in the following ways:

PRAYER

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of the Unborn ~ Thursday, January 22
Holy Hour for Life with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 1:00 pm in church, followed by Public recitation of the Rosary for Life on the Merrick Road sidewalk; Masses at 7:30 am & 9:00 am - will include prayers for life.

ACTION

Days of Action ~ Saturday January 17 thru Sunday, January 25

Beginning Saturday, January 17 thru Sunday, January 25, we will be accepting donations of baby goods for the Life Center of LI; items most needed at all locations are:

WINTER DONATIONS NEEDED

Coats/Snowsuits NB - 4T

Clothing Boys & Girls NB - 4T

Especially 12M - 4T

Diapers & Wipes ~ Baby/Toddler Toiletries

Formula/Baby Food ~ Bottles/Sippy Cups

Donations may be dropped off at the table set up by the Blessed Mother's Altar or at the rectory.

Thank you in advance for your prayers and generosity!

Much work is still needed to build a culture of life in our Country. Even with the overturning of Roe v. Wade, many states still do not recognize children in their mothers' wombs as persons, and continue to claim that abortion is a right. Prayer and advocacy are needed. The work of providing abortion alternatives and care for women and their children is as important as ever.

May the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus strengthen Catholics to stand up for the protection of every human life.

IRA Charitable Rollover

Qualified Charitable Distribution

This is a unique opportunity to make a charitable contribution through a direct IRA transfer while reducing your adjusted gross income, even under the new July 2025 tax rules.

If you would like to make a gift to St. Rose of Lima using your IRA:

- It must be a direct transfer.
- The IRA owner must be age 70½ or older at the time of the distribution.
- The donor must keep the QCD within the annual aggregate limit.
- The QCD must be processed by December 31 to qualify for tax benefits in that tax year. (Donors should start the process in early December to ensure ample time.)

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a “qualified charitable distribution.” In most cases, you will only have to fill out a simple form.

VERY IMPORTANT: Your gift must go directly from your IRA to our Parish. If you receive the money first, you will be taxed on it like any other distribution.

WHAT IT TAKES TO MAKE A QCD

-  The QCD must come from a Traditional or Inherited IRA.
-  Beneficiary must be at least 70 ½.
-  The distribution must go directly to a qualified charity.
-  You must receive a confirmation letter from the charity that states no goods or services were received in exchange for the contribution.
