Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. Lk 4:18

In last week's bulletin, I began a series of reflections on the first Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Leo XIV, Dilexi Te (I Have Loved You), which offers pastoral guidance on Christ's love and his summons to care for the poor. The second chapter of the exhortation is titled God Chooses the Poor.

In this chapter, Pope Leo illustrates that in his mission and ministry, Jesus Christ shows a preference for the poor. Born in the starkness of a stable and dying in naked humiliation on the cross, Christ's life is marked by a sharing in the radical poverty of human life and death. It is from this understanding, he says, that the church developed its theological understanding of God's preferential option for the poor. The Holy Father writes that "This 'preference' never indicates exclusivity or discrimination toward other groups, which would be impossible for God." Instead, he states, "It is meant to emphasize God's actions, which are moved by compassion toward the poverty and weakness of all humanity." At the beginning of his public ministry in Luke's gospel, Jesus reads the above quote from the prophet Isaiah, applying the prophet's words to himself, "as the One who, in the here and now of history, comes to bring about God's loving closeness."

Throughout this chapter, Pope Leo shows that God's concern for the poor is not new; it runs throughout Scripture. In the Old Testament, God hears and responds to the cries of the oppressed through prophets who call Israel to justice and mercy. We are familiar with the words of Psalm 34, that God not only hears the cry of the poor but intervenes for them through his prophets. The poor are repeatedly shown as central to God's covenant people.

What Jesus inaugurates in his mission to and with the poor is a fulfillment of what God has been doing throughout salvation history. In his preaching and teaching, we see Jesus overturning the popular notion that the sickness and poverty were due to personal sin and are, therefore, cast aside by God. Pope Leo writes that the opposite is true. Jesus teaches, "One cannot love God without extending one's love to the poor. Love for our neighbor is tangible proof of the authenticity of our love for God."

I urge you to read this chapter of the Pope's exhortation for yourself, so that you might reflect on the ways in which the Holy Father shows how God's love was profoundly revealed in Christ's poverty and his solidarity with the poor. I find that Pope Leo's guidance, in helping us to see Christ's choice of the poor, makes it clear that loving the poor is not an optional social program but intrinsically tied to the Gospel and the nature of Christian life. You can find Dilexi Ti on the Vatican website, www.vatican.va.

This week, I invite you to reflect on the following questions:

What does it mean that God chose poverty?

How does the Incarnation - God entering the world in humility and weakness - challenge my understanding of power, success, and what it means to live faithfully?

Who are "the poor" in my context?

Who around me experiences exclusion, vulnerability, or a lack of dignity, and how is God inviting me and my community to stand in solidarity with them?

How does this chapter shape the Church I help build?

In what ways do my parish, ministry, or personal choices reflect the Church's identity as one that belongs with and to the poor, not just one that serves them?

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK - Catholic Education continues to be an essential mission of our parish. It is particularly important that our young people are taught to live a life formed by the Gospel and strengthened by the sacraments. This week we celebrate how that mission is fulfilled through the leadership of St. Rose of Lima Principal, Mr. Brian Jensen, and the dedicated efforts of teachers, staff, and parents.

The mission is made possible, however, because of the shared commitment that all of us have to the formation of our children. I am very proud of not only the success our parish has had in the work of Catholic education, but in the successes of our children who thrive because of the care and attention that this parish has given to Catholic schools and education in faith. Every member of our parish contributes to the mission of our school through your financial and prayerful support. On behalf of our school community, I thank the greater parish community for your generous and prayerful support of our school.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 25–31, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, I give thanks for the extraordinary gift of Catholic education and for the students, families, educators, clergy, and benefactors who make our schools thrive across Long Island.

This year's observance begins on Word of God Sunday, reminding us that Sacred Scripture is not merely studied, but proclaimed, prayed, and lived. In our Catholic schools, the Word of God forms minds and hearts and draws students into a lifelong relationship with Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh.

Our Catholic schools remain steadfast in four essential commitments. First, to be robustly Catholic, rooted in daily prayer, the sacraments, and fidelity to the teachings of the Church. Under the patronage of St. Thomas Aquinas and St. John Henry Newman, co-patrons of Catholic education, we affirm that faith and reason are not rivals but companions, leading the mind to truth and the heart to God.

Second, to be academically excellent, forming the whole person. Guided by St. Thomas Aquinas's love for truth and inspired by St. John Henry Newman's vision of education, our schools cultivate intellectual rigor, disciplined inquiry, and thoughtful engagement with the world.

Third, to be safe and supportive, honoring the dignity of every child and fostering communities where students are known, protected, and encouraged. Finally, to be here to stay, strengthened through responsible stewardship and shared mission across parishes, families, and benefactors.

As Pope Leo XIV has reminded the Church, "education is not an ancillary activity, but forms the very fabric of evangelization: it is the concrete way in which the Gospel becomes an educational gesture, a relationship, a culture."¹¹ Our schools exist so that students may discover their God-given dignity, discern their vocation, and learn to live lives of joyful witness to Jesus Christ.

As we conclude Catholic Schools Week with the witness of St. John Bosco, I ask you to pray for our Catholic schools, support them generously, and encourage families to consider the profound gift of a Catholic education.

May the Word of God continue to be a light for our homes, parishes, and schools.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

PRAYER AND ACTION FOR THE GIFT OF LIFE

January 22 has been designated a day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children" in all U.S. Dioceses.

Prayer and action are the means by which we are called to move forward.

The Saint Rose of Lima Respect Life Committee invites you to join us in the following ways:

PRAYER

Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of the Unborn ~ Thursday, January 22
Holy Hour for Life with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 1:00 pm in church, followed by Public recitation of the Rosary for Life on the Merrick Road sidewalk;
 Masses at 7:30 am & 9:00 am - will include prayers for life.

ACTION

Days of Action ~ Saturday, January 17 thru Sunday, January 25
 Beginning Saturday, January 17 thru Sunday, January 25, we will be accepting donations of baby goods for the Life Center of LI; items most needed at all locations are:

WINTER DONATIONS NEEDED

Coats/Snowsuits NB - 4T
 Clothing Boys & Girls NB - 4T
 Especially 12M - 4T

Diapers & Wipes ~ Baby/Toddler Toiletries
 Formula/Baby Food ~ Bottles/Sippy Cups

Donations may be dropped off at the table set up by the Blessed Mother's Altar or at the rectory.
Thank you in advance for your prayers and generosity!

Much work is still needed to build a culture of life in our Country. Even with the overturning of Roe v. Wade, many states still do not recognize children in their mothers' wombs as persons, and continue to claim that abortion is a right. Prayer and advocacy are needed. The work of providing abortion alternatives and care for women and their children is as important as ever.

May the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus strengthen Catholics to stand up for the protection of every human life.

How Do I Request Prayer for myself or someone I love at St. Rose of Lima?

Our parish receives numerous prayer requests from parishioners and non-parishioners, for a variety of needs, but mostly for those who are experiencing an illness. Following is a list of opportunities for prayer in our parish:

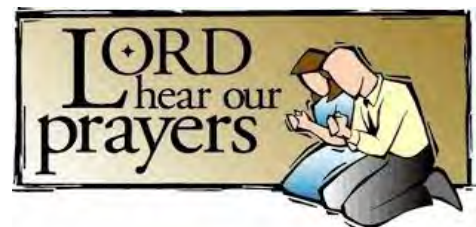

Prayers for the sick from the pulpit and in our weekly bulletin: Please call the rectory during regular business hours (516-798-4992) to add your name to this list. Names are mentioned from the pulpit during all Masses for one week, and are then transferred to the bulletin for a period of three weeks. (Please note: 1) For privacy reasons, if you are requesting prayers for someone other than yourself, you must have the permission of the person being prayed for to add their name to this list. 2) If a name is not announced, please know that they are not forgotten, as we pray for all those who are ill and convalescing at every Mass.)

Parish Prayer Intention Book: A book is located in the church narthex by the statue of St. Rose of Lima, where you can write your prayer request. These prayers can be for any reason, including for those serving in the military, and will be included collectively in our Sunday and weekday Mass intentions.

Charismatic Prayer Group prayer box: There is a box located on the shelf in the church vestibule - the entrance from the parking lot by the sacristy door - where you can place your request for prayers. Each week, the members of the Charismatic Prayer Group check the box, and the prayer requests are divided amongst the members. They will pray for your needs during their meeting on Wednesday afternoons, and continue at their homes. Paper and pencil are available by the prayer box for your convenience.

Prayer Line Ministry: Call or email (mariap@srolchurch.org) the rectory to request prayers. Members of this ministry receive a weekly list of names of people in need of prayer and pray for them in the privacy of their own home. Only first names are used to protect the privacy of the individual being prayed for.

For the Military: Call the rectory to request prayers for those serving in the military, and we will print the person's name and the branch they serve in, in the bulletin on a recurring basis.

AROUND THE DIOCESE...

Blood Drive - Memorare Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a blood drive on Monday, February 2 from 1:00-7:00 pm at the Banquet Hall on Jackson Avenue in Seaford. To schedule an appointment, call 1-800-933-BLOOD. For more information, please contact Charles Barr at 516-510-4703.
