Second Sunday in Lent

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design.

Don't you just wish you could make yourself a better person? If you work hard enough, we are told we can achieve anything. Yet despite our best efforts, we fall short of many goals. Accepting our limitations is an important part of a healthy mental and emotional life, but so is the desire to improve. We have the ability to improve our lives in many ways, and so each day we seek to be better than the previous. How does that impact our pursuit of holiness? Are my Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving going to make me holier? If not, why bother? Our spiritual exercises are not about us making ourselves holy, rather they are about contriteness of heart and an effort to be in His presence. It is being in the presence of the Lord that he himself purifies and sanctifies us.

Roughly 150,000 adults join the Catholic Church each year at Easter, not to mention others who become Catholic during the year. New members bring life and vitality to any parish. Last Sunday, many dioceses, including our own, celebrated the Rite of Election with those who are preparing for baptism at the Easter Vigil. In our parish, the religious education program, school community and baptism program have been busily preparing our children for the sacraments throughout the year, and through our own OCIA program, four adults are being prepared to be fully initiated into the church at our Easter Vigil. A few others will be received into the church from other Christian faiths, and some baptized Catholics will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

As most newly baptized will tell you, they became a member of the Church because someone was an example of Christian life to them. We are each renewed in our faith during these days of Lent, not simply for ourselves but so we may attract others to Christ. Our Lenten journey will lead us to the resurrection of the Lord, and we do not keep that vision secret. Let us pray that throughout these Lenten days, others will see our own transformation in holiness so that they may come to desire a life in Christ.

WELCOME, FR. ROGER – We are excited to welcome home Fr. Roger Lopez, OFM who will lead us on a three-day Lenten Retreat to begin the season of Lent. Fr. Roger is preaching at all masses next weekend, inviting us to either morning mass or an evening presentation, Monday to Wednesday, focusing on the theme To Thirst–To See–To Live. The evening presentations will begin at 7:00 pm. On Monday evening, the presentation will be in the context of Mass. On Tuesday, he will give his talk within a penance service with individual confessions available. On Wednesday, he will conclude the talk within a Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration. Please note: On Monday, the Miraculous Medal Novena will be prayed privately. A video invitation from Fr. Roger can be found on our website, social media, and at tinyurl.com/SROL-26Retreat.

CATHOLIC FAITH NETWORK TELETHON

I encourage you to join me in supporting this weekend's telethon in support of the evangelizing work of our diocesan television network - beginning on Saturday, February 28 from 2:00 pm and continuing through Monday, March 2 at 8:30 am.

The telethon can be viewed on Optimum, channel 29/137; Verizon FiOS TV channel 296; and Spectrum, channel 162/471 and streaming on Amazon Fire TV, Samsung Smart TV, Roku, Android TV, and Apple TV. Joining the many guests and performers will be students from Saint Rose of Lima School. Your financial and viewing support makes a difference in helping the church and our faith to be present in a multimedia world as well as connecting us with the faithful around the nation and world. You can make your secure donation at <https://www.catholicfaithnetwork.org/donate>.

This Fall we will begin our yearlong celebration leading up to our parish's 75th anniversary in November of 2027. Our Silver Jubilee will be a grace-filled time for us to look back with gratitude, celebrate the good work the Lord is doing within us today, and discern where God is calling us.

A NEW MINISTRY IS FORMING AT ST. ROSE!

Do you knit or crochet? The Prayer Shawl Ministry is beginning this March on THURSDAY, 3/12 from 1:00-2:30 pm! We will meet monthly in the Father Graham Center Meeting Room in the Outreach building to create beautiful handmade shawls for those in our community who could use a warm "hug." This is a prayerful ministry as we weave our prayers of love and healing into our stitches.

The completed shawls are never sold; they are freely given. If anyone wishes to donate to the ministry, funds will go toward yarn supplies. Yarn donations are welcome, too! Please place your donation in an envelope labeled "Prayer Shawl Ministry," and it can be dropped off at the Rectory or Outreach.

Thank you for your prayers and support!

WHO: Anyone interested in knitting or crocheting and joining a new ministry

WHAT: Please bring a skein of soft yarn and your favorite hook or needles; patterns will be provided. Yarn donations always welcome!

WHERE: Father Graham Center Meeting Room, in the Outreach building

WHEN: Thursday, March 12 from 1:00-2:30 pm (we will meet once a month until June and resume again in September)

*If anyone would like to participate in the ministry but can't make the meeting, please email at the address below, and you will receive a copy of the pattern and prayers. Completed shawls can be dropped off at Outreach Mon.-Wed., 10:00 am-2:00 pm.

Questions? Email: prayershawlministrySROL@yahoo.com or call Outreach for more information: 516-798-4954. Anyone interested in shawl recipient info, please email.
