2 BAYVIEW AVENUE MASSAPEQUA NY 11758 • 516-798-4992 • www.srolchurch.org

Welcome to our Faithful Parishioners and All Those who may be 'Just Visiting'

Jesus washed the feet of his apostles at the Last Supper as a sign of loving service, instructing them "as I have done this to you so must you do for one another." We as a family of faith strive to live this commandment of love in doing all that we can to welcome you as we invite you to be an active member of this community.

Welcome new parishioners! If you are new to our parish, I invite you to introduce yourself to me or any of the other priests after Sunday Mass. Even though we are a large parish, we make every effort to come to know you and your family personally so that we may be better able to serve you. If you would like to register, please see the Welcome section on the homepage of our website (www.srolchurch.org) for details.

...from Fr. Gerard

“Jesus’ heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.”

Recently, our community here in Massapequa has been shaken by two heartbreaking tragedies. Lives have been lost, families have been forever changed, and many of us are left struggling with questions, sadness, anger, fear, and grief. For the graduating class of Massapequa High School, this is the second classmate to be lost in the last 15 months.

The above Gospel quote speaks powerfully to our situation today. There are no simple explanations that can make sense of these tragedies. Instead, as people of faith, we turn to Jesus whose heart is troubled by human suffering.

When Jesus looked upon the crowds, He did not see problems to be solved or failures to be judged. He saw beloved children of God. His heart was moved with compassion. His response was not condemnation but mercy, not distance but closeness. As a parish family, we are called to share that same compassion. We cannot undo what has happened, but we can care for those who are grieving. We can be attentive to those who may be suffering in silence.

These tragedies we have witnessed remind us that we live in a culture that is increasingly marked by isolation, loneliness, anger, division, and a loss of meaningful relationships. Many are carrying immense burdens without effective support. Younger people wrestle with anxiety and struggle to find hope. In his recent encyclical Magnifica Humanitas, Pope Leo XIV observes that:

“The digital culture multiplies connections and offers new opportunities for interaction; yet, the human heart retains an irrevocable need for genuine closeness.”

The tragedies remind us that nothing can replace the healing power of real human presence, compassionate listening, and authentic community.

Amid these painful events, however, there are signs of hope. We have heard encouraging reports of increased Mass attendance, a renewed interest in the study of Sacred Scripture, and a growing desire—especially among young people—for an authentic spiritual life. Perhaps this spiritual awakening is itself a response to the loneliness, anxiety, and fragmentation that afflict so many lives. People are rediscovering what the Gospel has proclaimed all along: that we are not meant to walk through life alone. We were created for communion with God and with one another. In Christ, we find not only truth but also belonging, purpose, and hope.

The answer to these societal wounds is not simply better programs or policies, important as those may be. The answer is a renewed culture of encounter: people who know they are loved by God, families that remain close to one another, neighbors who look after each other, and a Church that reflects the compassionate heart of Christ. In a world where so many feel troubled and abandoned, every Christian is called to help others know that they are neither forgotten nor alone. Every Mass, every prayer, every act of charity, every conversation that communicates God's love becomes a sign that no one is forgotten, and no one is beyond hope.

As we enter the summer months, I would like to offer a simple challenge. Often vacations and a less structured routine lead to a decrease in the practice of our faith. Sunday Mass becomes easier to miss, prayer becomes less regular, and family members can find themselves moving in different directions. This year, I invite every person and every family to do the opposite. Use the freedoms of summer as an opportunity to draw closer to God and to one another. Attend Mass every Sunday and even on an occasional weekday, for it is at Holy Mass that we most perfectly experience the truth that, through the sacrifice of Christ, death has no power over us. Set aside quiet time each day for prayer and reflection. Share meals, conversations, and experiences that deepen family bonds. These simple practices help us remain rooted in Christ and connected to one another. They remind us that we are never alone, that we belong to a community of faith, and that the Good Shepherd continues to lead us with compassion, hope, and love.

What gives rise in parents to the desire to bring children into the world is not a necessity to have something, but a desire to give".

– Pope Leo XIV

Every day, people in our community are helped because of support from funds raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Today, consider a dad like Paul. Paul saw information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal at his local parish, and he knew he had to turn to the Church for help since he had nowhere else to go. Paul had been gainfully employed for more than 10 years when he began to fall ill. Soon his medical issues made it impossible for him to keep working and he was forced to go out on disability.

After paying the co-pays on his medications, his family's rent and utilities bills, Paul had very little left to purchase food and other necessities for his family.

It was hard for him to ask for help, but with nowhere else to turn, he did. Catholic Charities found him a specialist who assessed the family's needs and directed them to appropriate resources in their community. He went to his Parish Outreach, where his family received food that allowed them to make it through the month. Paul and his family received the help they so desperately needed.

Today, Paul is back to work and the family is doing well. "I am so thankful that I know there is somewhere I can turn, where there are people that care, people I can talk to, if I am ever in such a situation again," shared Paul.

Please consider donating to the Appeal and making a difference in the lives of others.

The Federal Scholarship Tax Credit: Support Students at No Cost to You

Starting January 1, 2027, a new federal law provides an historic opportunity to support Catholic education by redirecting a portion of your federal taxes directly to student scholarships.

What is it and how does it work?

- Dollar-for-Dollar Credit: This is a 100% tax credit, not just a deduction. For every dollar you contribute to a Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO), your federal tax bill is reduced by that same amount.
- Credit Limits: Every individual who pays federal tax can receive a credit of up to $1,700 (or $3,400 for married couples filing jointly).
- No Out-of-Pocket Cost: Because the contribution reduces your tax liability dollar-for-dollar, you are simply "redirecting" money you already owe the IRS to support local students.
- Generous Eligibility: Scholarships serve students from households with an income up to 300% of their county's median income.

An Urgent Call to Action: Contact Governor Hochul

For families to benefit from this program, the State of New York must "opt-in". Visit <https://bit.ly/2026FSTC> to contact Governor Hochul and urge her to opt-in to the FSTC.

- Annual Requirement: The state's participation is not permanent; the Governor must choose to opt-in on an annual basis.
- Urgent Advocacy: It is critical that we contact Governor Hochul now to urge her to opt-in for the 2027 tax year.
- Keeping Dollars in New York: If New York does not opt-in, donations from New Yorkers can still be made to SGOs in other states, meaning our tax dollars would leave New York to support students elsewhere.

How to Support Long Island's Catholic Schools

While federal law prevents donors from directing a scholarship to a specific child, you have the power to choose which community benefits:

- Designate Our School: When you contribute, you can direct the SGO to send your donation to a specific diocese or even a specific school.

Timeline: The credit becomes claimable for the 2027 tax year (filed in 2028).

This is a "win-win" for our families and parish communities. By contacting Governor Hochul and participating in this program, you can ensure your tax dollars stay local to support a child's Catholic education.
