...from Fr. Gerard

"The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal."

These words from the prophet Ezekiel offer us a beautiful image of God's relationship with his people and foreshadow the ministry of Jesus Christ. Throughout his public ministry, Jesus seeks out the lost, welcomes those who have wandered away, restores the broken, and heals those who suffer. He does not distance himself from human weakness or suffering. Instead, he draws near, offering God's mercy and compassion. This mission and ministry of Christ continues in the church today.

The prophet's words also point to the eternal kingdom that awaits us. Therefore, the church's mission is to lead us to heaven. It is to save souls and, consequently, to cultivate a longing for eternal life, a desire for divine mercy, and a willingness to live a life of sacrificial love.

As we bring the Church's liturgical year to a close, the Solemnity of Christ the King challenges us to ask an important question: If Christ is truly our King, can others recognize his presence in how we live? Do we seek out those who are lost? Do we welcome those who feel excluded? Do we take the time to bind up the wounds of those who are hurting? Do we offer compassion to those who are sick, lonely, or forgotten?

Our celebration today is both a promise and a responsibility. We look forward with hope to the eternal kingdom where Christ will reign in glory, yet we are also called to make that kingdom visible here and now through our words, actions, and love for one another.

75th ANNIVERSARY OPENING MASS AND MINISTRY FAIR - Thank you to everyone for making the opening Mass of the Jubilee Year and the Ministry Fair such a success. It was an incredible day, better than I could have imagined. Over 800 people attended the Mass, and hundreds joined us at the Ministry Fair. I am particularly grateful for the hard work of our maintenance staff and the leadership of the Pastoral and rectory teams. There will be jubilee events throughout the year ahead, and our bulletin will feature stories from our parish history.

ADDITIONAL PARISH PRIEST – Bishop Barres has appointed Fr. Bob Romeo to join us as an Associate Pastor from December through the end of June, when he will be assigned a pastorate. Fr. Bob has served at St. Peter in Port Washington, St. Christopher in Baldwin, and Curé of Ars in Merrick. He has been the pastor at St. Boniface in Sea Cliff and at St. Mary's in Manhasset. Last year, he was granted a leave of absence to care for his parents and is now returning to active ministry. He will arrive sometime in the first week of December and begin serving the parish the 2nd weekend in December. Fr. Nicodemus will remain with us until the end of December.

GRATITUDE AND THANKS – As we look ahead to the Thanksgiving weekend celebration, I want to thank everyone who gave so that others may be blessed. Thank you to all who contributed the Thanksgiving Blessing Bags and additional food donations that have helped stock the pantry.

THANKSGIVING MASS – On Thursday at 9:00 a.m., we will celebrate our annual Thanksgiving Day Mass. You are invited to bring a sample of the food you have prepared for your Thanksgiving meal to be blessed at Mass. A special table will be set near the sanctuary for you to place your food for blessing. Our offertory collection at the Thanksgiving Day Mass will benefit the Haitian mission of the Friar Suppliers (www.friarsuppliers.org).

ADVENT WREATH - We enter the season of Advent next weekend, and we begin our faithful preparations for the celebration of Christ's birth. This year, we will continue the tradition of inviting families and individuals to sign up to light our Advent Wreath at Masses. The sign-up book is available on the altar rail in front of the Saint Joseph statue.

MONDAY NIGHT CONFESSIONS – Throughout Advent, the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available on Monday evenings immediately after the 7:30 p.m. Mass. You are encouraged to take advantage of this additional opportunity to prepare for Christmas by receiving the Lord's mercy in this healing sacrament.

We will see him choose the way of humility and service over that of power and dominion. We will contemplate a king who empties himself completely in order to give life to his people. We will consider the thrones he has chosen to occupy: from the manger, to the mountain, to the cross. We will ask him to teach us to embrace his criteria so that we, too, might reign with him."

WITH GRATEFUL HEARTS FROM ALL OF US AT THE OFFICE OF FAITH FORMATION, WE WISH YOU A VERY HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

In the early 1950s, thousands of people were moving to the newly-constructed homes in Massapequa and Massapequa Park. The growth of residents in the greater Massapequa area captured the attention of Bishop Thomas Malloy of the Brooklyn diocese, and he decided to create a new Catholic parish there.

In 1952, Reverend John Fagan was appointed to be the pastor of a new parish in Massapequa. He named the new parish Saint Rose of Lima, in honor of his mother. However, a serious illness prevented him from undertaking the pastoral assignment. As a result, Right Reverend Monsignor Edmund Fitzgerald of Corpus Christi Parish in Mineola undertook the work of locating and purchasing 4.5 acres on Merrick Road in Massapequa, and so the history of Saint Rose of Lima Roman Catholic Church begins.

In November 1952, Father Francis Burns was appointed pastor, beginning his ministry in what had been a large white summer mansion built in the 1860s, which was to serve as the rectory and church for several years.

On November 16, 1952, more than 1,400 parishioners attended mass. It was estimated that the parish encompassed 1,900 families and the original schedule of two masses on Sunday increased to four. Within weeks, a choir was formed as an organ was donated from a neighboring parish, St. William the Abbot in Seaford. Plans were also developed to begin a Parish School convent. Laymen and women enthusiastically supported the creation of the Rosary and Altar Societies as well as the Holy Name Society.

In 1955, the first census revealed that there were 2,500 families in the parish. With the death of Father Francis Burns in December 1958, Father Joseph Culligan served as temporary parish administrator until the appointment of Father Hugh Graham as pastor in March 1959.During Father Graham's pastorate, ground was broken for a 24-classroom school and a convent capable of housing 20 sisters. Completed in 1960, the school was opened for grades 1 through 6, later expanding through the 8th grade in 1963. The school was staffed by the Amityville Dominican sisters and Sister Francis Marie served as principal.

In 1963, construction began to build a new church. It was blessed in March 1965 by Bishop Walter Kellenberg, the first Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Although Father Graham retired in 1975, he remained in residence until his death in November 1981. During his tenure, numerous ministries and programs were created as laypeople began to take a greater role in the parish as a result of the directive of Vatican II. Also during this time, several men from Saint Rose entered programs leading to the permanent diaconate.

Father Ronald Barry became the pastor of Saint Rose in 1975. During Father Barry's pastorate, even more ministries and programs were created for both the young and the old, and the summer Family Festival also began. Father Barry improved the Religious Education program, inaugurated the Peace and Justice program and brought in Sister Loyola Curtin to oversee the parish Outreach program. Father Barry encouraged several men to enter the permanent diaconate program and eventually saw five deacons serving at Saint Rose. Father Barry was also instrumental in the development of the Interfaith Clergy Council of the greater Massapequas. Upon Father Barry's retirement in 1995, Monsignor Daniel Hurley became the pastor of Saint Rose until 2008. Monsignor Hurley was succeeded by Reverend Kenneth M. Zach who was officially installed as pastor on January 10, 2009, and served a 13-year term, ending in June 2021. Reverend Gerard Gentleman is the current pastor of Saint Rose of Lima who was officially installed as our 7th pastor on October 3, 2021.

Saint Rose of Lima has been blessed with the love, support and contributions of almost 8,000 families. We celebrated our 50th Anniversary in 2002 with joy in our hearts and profound gratitude to almighty God. We are one spiritual family, bound together in friendship and unity. On November 15, 2012, we celebrated a beautiful mass in honor of our 60th Anniversary at 7:30 PM. As we look to the future and our 75th anniversary in 2027, we thank God for all those who have been part of our past. As our parish continues to grow, we will strive to respond to your needs by developing new ministries and programs, and we will continue to bring the healing touch and unconditional love of Jesus to our parishioners and the community. Each and every one of you is an important part of the Saint Rose family. We look forward to serving you and your families in the years to come.

2026 St. Rose of Lima Advent Angels: Wishes & Warmth

The Family Mass Team will again be coordinating our Advent Angel Gift Collection here at St. Rose. The idea behind Advent Angels is to give the families of our parish an opportunity to help people who are less fortunate than themselves by giving with our hearts, with love and generosity. The collection will benefit the Outreach efforts here in the Massapequas at St. Rose of Lima and also support the Church of the Resurrection in Farmingville.

There are two focuses for this year's Advent Angels:
Gift Cards & Winter Clothing! Toys will not be collected this year.*

GIFT CARDS to fulfill Wishes!

The main focus for this year is GIFT CARDS. The reason for this direction centers around compassion for the struggling families assisted at SROL Parish Outreach. Our hope is that Gift Cards allow supported parents or grandparents to experience the dignity & joy of shopping for the perfect gift for their loved ones. We truly hope the St. Rose community can support this year's effort as generously as they have in the past. The St. Rose of Lima Parish Outreach team is asking for gift cards in $25 increments for these stores: Amazon, Walmart, Target, & Kohls.

There are two (2) ways you can support the Gift Card effort:

1. Order gift cards directly via the Holiday Gift Card Order Form found in the bulletin. Cards ordered will be forwarded directly to Outreach, and as a bonus, provide financial support to the parish through the rebate we receive.
2. Buy gift cards on your own & return them with a tag attached or in an envelope by December 6 to allow families enough time to shop with the Gift Cards before Christmas.

WINTER CLOTHING to provide Warmth!

In our support of the Church of the Resurrection in Farmingville, we are collecting winter clothing apparel instead of toys to support their requested need! Items of need include Sweaters, Winter Shirts, Jeans, Coats, Snow Pants, Winter Hats, Gloves, Snow Boots, Socks, Shoes, Pajamas, and Slippers across various ages and both genders. To make sure we have the proper mix to fulfill the needs, we will distribute angel gift tags listing different winter apparel for various ages & both genders.

We will distribute angel gift tags for gift cards and winter clothing from our "Giving Gifts" displays in the Church between November 14 and December 4. These tags will be located by the Altar rail near the statue of Mary and by the Tree of Life near the parking lot entrance closest to Merrick Road.

Gift Cards and unwrapped winter clothing with their tag should be returned to the 10AM Family Mass or to the Rectory by December 6. December 6 is the last day for the collection. The Winter Clothing will be delivered immediately following the 10am Family Mass on December 6 so it is imperative all Winter Clothing be received by this time.

Whether you participate in this program or not, let's make a special effort this Advent and Christmas to keep all those less fortunate than ourselves in our prayers. Thank you! If you have any questions, please call Matt or Kelly-Ann at 516-798-6026 or see anyone on the Family Mass team during our collection at the 10am Mass.

* Due to the needs of the communities this year, we will NOT be collecting toys this year! If you are strongly motivated to give toys this Christmas, we recommend you look at the Toys for Tots program run by the United States Marine Corps Reserve (https://www.toysfortots.org/) or another worthy charitable program.

HOLIDAY CARDS WILL BE ON SALE FOR 3 WEEKS

Fundraise for St. Rose while you shop for Christmas gifts or for yourself.

Please bring your orders to the rectory by 11 am on Monday, Nov. 30, Dec. 7 & 14.

Please drop off order and payment at the Rectory.

We will give you a call when your cards are ready/probably FRIDAY of the week you order.
